Sandpoint is home to some unique and elegant bed and breakfast facilities. From converted Victorian style homes to turn-of-the century Sandpoint landmarks one can find something suited to their individual tastes. While most are located in town, there are a number of B&B's in the adjoining areas.

As is the case with most B&B's one can expect fabulous meals, a warm friendly residence and gracious and enjoyable hosts. That certainly is the case with the selection of bed and breakfast establishments to be found in the area.

The Coit House

Walk through our doors and experience the magnificent beauty of a restored 1907 Victorian manor. The Coit House offers four uniquely designed and charming rooms with private baths and one-of-a-kind antiques. Each of our guest rooms has cable television and a phone installed for your convenience.
